Aug 25, 2015 Marco and his team begin designing at the request of Michael Minden and Laia Ribatella, creating several styles for performances on Sep. 5 (filmed San Diego perf for RHOH) Sep. 19 (Las Vegas Perf @ Bellagio) Oct. 31 (Miami Perf Rock the Troops) Nov. 8 (Palm Springs Pride)

A design is confirmed and Marco and his team begin the process of creating the new garment. This approval is only starting point. The design can change in any number of ways from this point to delivery, including but not limited to-cut, color, and style or fullness of embellishment Quantity may vary as Laia generally would have duplicates made after final approval, and throughout the year.

Oct 21, 2015 As is customary, Marco relays design confirmation to Chris, who in turn runs card on file. Acknowledging that the payment for the Nov. 8 to begin production, Laia texts Chris to schedule fitting for the following Monday, Oct 26. Oct.25 2015 Laia moves fitting to Tuesday, Oct 28 Oct 27, 2015 Laia moves fitting to Wednesday, Oct 29. She then requests to meet about a last minute look this would have been to revamp the black flame catsuit with crystal and to begin design on the gold and black leotard embellished with crystal and beaded fringe referenced in Count 2

Due to EJ being in Miami over the Halloween weekend, for a performance on the Big E for Rock the Troops Fitting is moved to Nov. 3, 2015. At Laia's request, fitting is moved last minute to CenterStaging in the Valley

Nov.5, 2015 at Michael Minden's request, asks for beaded fringe, the beads used are 60-120$ a yard depending on length of fringe requiring several yards and hours of hand sewing to be added to an already sewn and embellished garment.

Nov. 6, Michael Minden inquires about when Marco will be arriving in Palm Springs with the new garment. Marco drives up to P.S. on Nov. 7th, to conduct a fitting at EJ's suite. He makes all final adjustments by hand on site. Nov. 8, Marco dresses EJ in her new costume, and accompanies her to her performance
